Pick Up Points and Times

These pick up points and times are only approximate, your tutor will negotiate with you on the best place for pick ups

We will be having pick ups at the following points:

- 7.30am - Birmingham (outside the Town Hall)
- 8.00am - Coventry (outside the City Bus Station)
- 8.30am - Warwick (outside Warwick Library)

Payment

The cost for each place on a coach is £25. Please note that places on all trips are allocated on a first come, first served basis. Your cheque will be returned to you if your booking form and payment arrive after all available places have been allocated. All seats must be pre-booked and pre-paid, payment cannot be accepted on the coach.

You can either pay online or Give a cheque to your tutor. Cheques will not be paid into the bank until after the final booking date which is 10 days before the trip date. No refunds will be paid after this date.

Please attach your remittance (payable to Family History Detectives) for the amount of £25 and then hand it to your tutor.

For those visiting the National Archives, you need to have a look at the rules:
